Kentucky Crafted: The Market 2009

Lori Meadows
Executive Director
Kentucky Arts Council

Welcome to Kentucky Crafted: The Market 2009! The Kentucky Arts Council is proud to present this wholesale/retail marketplace featuring fine contemporary and traditional craft, two-dimensional artwork, books, musical recordings, films and food products by Kentucky artisans, now in its 27th year.

The theme of this year's market is Kentucky Crafted: Naturally! and we are pleased to have nationally renowned garden designer Jon Carloftis join us as guest designer. Jon's garden vignettes located throughout the market illustrate the ways in which artwork can be used to create your own Kentucky Crafted garden. Jon will share how to create beautiful garden spaces incorporating many of the wonderful products found at Kentucky Crafted: The Market in his presentation Designing a Kentucky Crafted Garden at 10:00am on Saturday morning. Be sure to visit Jon in the garden area to chat with him about ideas for incorporating artwork into your own garden.

Kentucky Crafted: The Market also has a wealth of other special activities for 2009 including readings and book signings, musical performances and film screenings by Kentucky artists, all featuring products which are for sale. Kentucky's quilt trail traditions will be highlighted through demonstrations by quilters and painters of some of the many barn quilts throughout the state. You'll want to take a part of this tradition home with you by purchasing a copy of "Kentucky Quilt Trails: Views and Voices" produced by the Kentucky Arts Council!

Be sure to visit the many activities at the market celebrating the bicentennial of Abraham Lincoln's birth in Kentucky including the Kentucky Historical Society's Lincoln Mobile, our special showcase of artist created Lincoln products, and the children's activities area. The Kentucky Arts Council's new publication, "Abraham Lincoln of Kentucky" with writings by Kentucky Poets Laureate Jane Gentry Vance, Joe Survant, Richard Taylor, and Sena Jeter Naslund, and wood engravings by John Lackey will also be available at the market.

As the state arts agency and part of the Tourism, Arts and Heritage Cabinet, the Kentucky Arts Council creates opportunities for Kentuckians to value, benefit from and participate in the arts. I hope your experience at Kentucky Crafted: The Market allows you to experience first-hand the unique culture, flavor and traditions of the commonwealth as presented by the arts.

Sincerely,

Lori Meadows
Executive Director
Kentucky Arts Council

The Kentucky Arts Council, the state arts agency, is funded with state tax dollars and federal funding from the National Endowment for the Arts, which believes that a great nation deserves great art.
